Sothern in Comedy At Belasco, French Farce Opens At National

Sutro's New P'ay The Two Virtues, Begins American Tour Here.

H. SOTHERN will be seen for the first time on Monday night in an English comedy entitled "The Two Virtues," by tro, at the Belasco Theater, with arlotte Walker as his leading

The national Theater opens this ak with a French farce entitled o Near Paris." Liane Carrere, daughter of Anna Held, plays leading role.

The play made famous by David arfield, "The Grand Army Man," ill be presented by the Poli Play-

Keith's, vaudeville, offers two mely acts entitled "A Regular rmy Man" and "Veterans." Charlotte Walker will appear in the film play entitled "Out of Dark-ss" at the Columbia. The "Golden Crook" Burlesque Company will be at the Gavety.

BELASCO.

E. H. Sothern, with Charlotte Walker as leading woman, will appear at the Belasco tomorrow night in a modern omedy, Alfred Sutros "The Two Virtues," under the joint direction of Lee Shubert and Winthrop Ames. In "The Two Virtues," Sutro has In "The Two Virtues," Sutro has delicately satirized the intolerance of woman toward the unfortunate ones of her kind, apropos of which he makes e startling remark that charity in a oman is of greater virtue than foman is of greater virtue than hustity.

Ar. Sothern will play the role of effery Panton, a rich, eccentric, midleaged bachelor, who through an uncrunate love affair in which his incee marries another man, seeks remement in his study where, undistribed, he can meditate on the memicles of his lost Isabel. Miss Walker fill be seen as Mrs. Guildford. After we years complacent life. Jeffrey is will be seen as Mrs. Guildford. After we years complacent life, Jeffrey is much disturbed by a visit from Isabel, those husband, it seems, had sought impiration for his epic poem in the sympathy of a Mrs. Guildford, a woman of questionable reputation. Isabel pleads with Jeffery to save her usband from this woman by visiting for himself and persuading her to give im up. Jeffery, much against his will. m up. Jeffery, much against his will, sits the apartments of the infamous sits the apartments of the infamous s. Guildford, and to his astonishment finds her a woman of noble qualices, of exquisite culture, and, like macif, a student of history. He enges her as his collaborator, and so be play gathers momentum, due to be efforts of Isabel and the sister of siftery.

Prominent in the cast are Haidee right, Blanche Yurka, Pauline Wit-n, Orlando Daly, Albert Howson, and prence Phelps.

NATIONAL.

The National Theater will open its son tomorrow night with the first erican performance of "Too Near a French farce which is said have been unusually successful in ropean capitals.

Marcel Janvier is the credited author the book or farce, while the musical ting has been supplied by M. Alexdure and Anatol Friedland. Like the adjority of French farces, "Too Near aris" is said to abound in ludicrous tuations and rapid action. The adjustion is said to have lost nothing the elimination of everything that build tend to offend.

by the elimination of everything that would tend to offend.

The cast selected to portray the different characters includes Liane Carrièra, Anna Held's daughter. John W. Bansome, the original Hans Wagner of the Prince of Pilsen heads the company. The cast includes Henrietta Lee, bornerly with "The Sunshine Girl," and other Charles Fronman attractions and more recently principal comedian with bilian Eltinge; Nicholas Judels, Broadfay musical coinedy portrayer of stage frenchmen; and several other well known favorites, with a chorus of young and attractive girls.

The play has been given a scenic setting from the studios of Dodge and Castle.

human interest, the central figure being a veteran of the cival war whose whole life is wrapped up in a youth, who threatens to bring sorrow and shame to the old man's gray hairs. Through the love and the devoted wife because the

POLI'S.

Grand Army week at Poli's will be imaugurated tomorrow with the most timely play that the Poli Company has ever presented. It is David Warfield's wonderful comedy drama of sentiment and patriotism, "The Grand Army Man." In this play Mr. Warfield was starred by David Belasco for several seasons, and this/will be the first presentation of it in stock, for Mr. Belasco bas alwoys held it because he expects to present Mr. Warfield in it again, when the famous star tours America in repertoire.

"The Grand Army Man" is to be presented here this week as a result of Mr. Belasco's desire to Compilment the Grand Army Veterans who are to be the city's honored guests.

The play tells a story of absorbing to the first presented by David Belasco, and repertoire.

The Grand Army Man" is to be presented here this week as a result of Mr. Belasco's desire to Compilment the Grand Army Veterans who are to be the city's honored guests.

The play tells a story of absorbing to the company of twelve players, including company of twelve players, including a company of twelve players, including c

AMUSEMENTS

AMUSEMENTS

DAILY, 2:15 & 8:15 SUNDAY, 3:00 & 8:15 MATINEES, 25c; EVENINGS, 25c to $1. BUY IN ADVANCE.

WAR HEROES WEEK HONORS THE VETERANS A Magnificent Bill of Supreme Stage Stara for Patrons and Patriots.

Comedy Fame. VICTOR MORLEY

The Co-Star of "Three Twins"

And Company of 12 in the Merry Musical Military Maneuver. "A Regular Army Man" By Channing Pollock, Rennold Wolf, and Clifton Crawford.

The Co-Star of International Comic Celebrity, CHAS. GRAPEWIN ANNA CHANCE & 60., in "POUGHKEEPSIE," Vaudeville's Famous Split-Second Comedy. HARRY FERN & CO.

In "VETERANS,"
A Comedy-Drama of Romance and Patriotism. Col. J. A. PATTEE'S "OLD SOLDIER FIDDLERS" Three "Yauka" and Two "Rebs" Unite in War-Time Jigs, Dances, and Melodies of the Camp-Fire.

Other Hits GERTRUDE VANDERBILT & GEO. MOORE, AUGUSTA GLOSE, THE POPULAR PIPE OFFICE HERE DIETRICH, HARRY SEEBACK.
The Popular Pipe Organ Recitals. The Pathe Bi-Weekly Pictorial News, &c. SUNDAY CONCERTS, 3 and 8:15 P. M. USUAL PRICES ONLY.

To- BARNARD & ANGER Bennie Glass, Kate Ellinore, Day BARNARD & ANGER Bennie Shone, Ota Gygl, Al. Herman, Irene & Bobbie Smith And All Last Week's Attractions in an Incomparable Program.

AMUSEMENTS

Billy Arlington

'I'm the Leader'

MARK KENT

Polis

Three stellar attractions which will appeal especially to members of the appeal especially to members of the Dietrich in operatic and popular songs; Harry Seeback, world's champion bag puncher, with the Seebacks in an arenic and amusing act; the pipe ogan recitals, and the bi-weekly Pathe news pictorial.

Tole, will offer a new routine of materials, which was written by the Darkness," which was written by the Darkness," which was written by the Company are Frank Dobson, comedian: Hector Turnbull.

The story is founded on the fact that a large part of the injustice in the world is the result of ignorance or indifference. Helen Scott is the owner of difference. Helen Scott is the owner of the difference.

bers will be Horace Wright and Rene Dietrich, in operatic and popular songs; Harry Seeback, world's champion bag punener, with the Seebacks in an arenic and amusing act; the pipe ogan recitals, and the bi-weekly Pathe news pictorial.

COLUMBIA

Charlotte Walker will be seen on the screen of the Columbia Theater the first four days of this week in her second the coast of Florida and loses her the company are Frank Dobson, comedian; Eleanor Cockran, soubrette; Alva Mc-Gill, prima donna; the Beau Brummel Trio, and Hite and Roflow, ballroom and whirlwind dancers. An added feature to the production will be the first appearance in burlesque of Sam Raskin Scott declines to take interest in her property. She is hurt in a boat accident off the coast of Florida and loses her other specialties to be introduced

Billy Arlington at the head, a Jacobs & BILLY APILINGTON Jermon burlesque attraction, opens at Gayety the Gayety Theater tomorrow afternoon for a week's engagement. Mr. Arlington, who is featured in the principal

A special musical score has been arranged for this production taken from the immortal music of Edward Grieg.

GAYETY. The "Golden Crook" Company, with

EMMA COOK Lyceum

AMUSEMENTS

TOMORROW

AMUSEMENTS

SPECIAL SUNDAY PRICES Today THE LIBERTY GIRLS

COMING ... THE GAY NEW YORKERS

New York to Have Seven Music Plays Movies De Luxe at $2.00.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26,-The Messra. Schubert announce a long list of new and old plays for production during the present season. No less than seven new musical shows are among the number. "Alone at Last," Franz Lehar's latest opera, will be seen in New York next month, with Jose Collins in the cast. "All Over Town," with Joseph Santley, which has had a summer run in Chicago, will be produced in New York before the holidays.

Other musical productions will be 'The Girl From Brazil," with music by Robert Winterberg; "The Fake Baron." to be presented in association with F. Ray Comstock; "The Broadway Girl," by Max Hey, Hugo Hirsch and Harry Schreyer, and "Miss I-Don't-Know," by Charles Bakonyl and Eugene Huszka. All of these are adaptations from the foreign.

foreign.

In addition to the new Winter Garden production, a revue to be called within the Loop" will be presented in Chicago, and will later be seen in New York.

in Chicago, and will later be seen in New York.

George Naah will appear in "The Mark of the Beast," a new play by Georgia Earle. E. H. Sothern, as already announced, will star in "The Two Virtues," and "Stolen Orders" will be presented in association with the Messrs. Brady. Comstock, and Gest. Among the comedies to be produced will be "Hobson's Choice," by Hare, d Brighouse, and "The Cry of a Child," by Wilson Mizner.

Kalph Herz will play "Ruggles of Red Gap," already produced out of town by the Shuberts and William A. Brady. There will be a new play by A. E. Thomas, extitled "The Strange Boarder;" "Oh, James," by Byron Ongley, and "Bunker Bean," with Taylor Holmes in the cast. Lou Tellegen will be seen on the road in "Taking Chances," and will later have a new play.

during the first and second acts are Frank Dobson, assisted by Sadie Richards in songs and dances; Wall, Dobson and Arlington, presenting "Burlesque Obera:" and Alva McGille, billed as "the nightingale." Twenty big musical numbers and ensembles are to be interpolated, including "Ragtime Jubice." "Beautiful Land of Long Ago," "Heavenly Ball." "The Kiss Waltz," 'Watch the Finish." 'Save Up Your Pennies," and "Go, Go, Go." During the second act a ballet of the seasons will be given, showing scenes of spring, summer, autumn, and winter, featuring Hite and Rotlow

The new play by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, long anticipated and several times postponed, has at last been shown to London. "The Big Drum," was presented at the St. James' Theater by Sir Oberge Alexander on September 1 with an impressive cast. It left the critics cold.

"An odd play," says the Times, "with odd ideas about literature and love, and an odd, inflated style.

Thursday night the Knickerbocker Theater opened as a $2 movie playhouse. The opening bill was made up of three pictures produced by the directors of the and "Go. Go." During the second act a ballet of the seasons will be given, showing scenes of spring, summer, autumn, and winter, featuring Hite and Roflow

The production carries a chorus of twenty pretty showgirls, who are promised to be seen before the footlights during the entire performance magnificently gowned in a numerous variety of costumes. For the rendering of the specialties and five scenes the "Golden Crook" Company is carrying more than an extra amount of scenery seen at burlesque houses, and many novelties are said to be introduced in the way of electrical and mechanical devices.

Thursday night the Knickerbocker Theater opened as $2 movie playhouse. The opening bill was made up of three pictures produced by the directors of the Triangle Corporation, "The Iron Strain," produced by Thomas H. Ince: "The Lamb," photographed under the supervision of D. W. Griffith, and "My Valet." a Mack Sennett comedy. Dusting an extra amount of scenery seen at burlesque houses, and many novelties are said to be introduced in the way of electrical and mechanical devices.

AMUSEMENTS

LIANE CARRERA Natronal

AMUSEMENTS

NATIONAL THEATER THIS WEEK

The Frisky French Musical Farce

TOO NEAR PARIS

the Leading Theaters of Paris, Vienna and Berlin.

A Broadway All-Star Cast

JOHN W. RANSOME

The Man Who Made the Prince of Pilsen Famous.

CHAS. D. MORRISON HARRISON GARRETT MADGE YORKE
NICHOLAS JUDELS HENRIETTA LEE HARRY HUMPHRIES

LIANE CARRERA

A charming. Frenchy atmosphere that will bring youthful, happy, thoughts to the most jaded and tired mind. Don't miss this musical fun Prices, evening and Saturday matinee, 59c-$1.50. Popular matinee, Wednesday, 50c-$1.00.

NEXT WEEK—Wednesday and Saturday—Seats Thursday
A New Comedy Drama in Four Acts. MY LADY'S GARTER

A Dramatization of Jacques Futrelle's Famous Novel, by Lee Morrison

ARCADE AUDITORIUM

14th St. and Park Rd.

OPENS SATURDAY, OCT. 2

Entirely New Management

Royal Artillery Band, 40 pieces, under the direction of Sig. Oriunno, world-famous trombone soloist, from Young's Million-dollar Pier, Atlantic City.

Band Concerts Every Sunday 3 and 8 P. M.

Continuous Dancing every evening beginning at 8 o'clock; band of 40 pieces and orchestra of 12 pieces. Dancing under the direction of Prof. Schwaber. Society and exhibition dancing.

> Admission-Adults, 25c, Children, 15c.

No extra charge for dancing.

Skating every afternoon, beginning at 3:30. Admission 15c. Band in attendance.